RE: The Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008

Dear Mr. Antonakes:

The Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008 (the SAFE Act) was enacted on July 30, 2008, as part of the Housing and Economic Recovery Act of 2008. The SAFE Act is designed to enhance consumer protection and reduce fraud by encouraging states and U.S. territories to establish minimum standards for the licensing and registration of certain mortgage loan originators and for the Conference of State Bank Supervisors (CSBS) and the American Association of Residential Mortgage Regulators (AARMR) to establish and maintain a nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry for the residential mortgage industry.

Pursuant to our responsibilities under the SAFE Act, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has conducted a preliminary review of the licensing and registration legislation adopted by your jurisdiction. We note that your statute authorizes the implementation of SAFE Act requirements through regulatory or administrative means. Therefore, a determination of compliance with the minimum provisions of the SAFE Act also will require HUD review of those regulations or administrative actions.

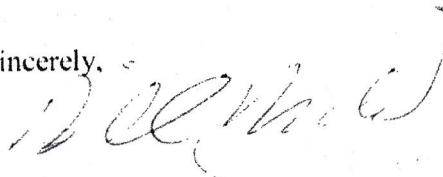

In order to facilitate a faster response to any questions or concerns you may have regarding HUD's review, the Department has assigned a SAFE Act Specialist to act as the primary point of contact for your jurisdiction. The specialist assigned to work with your jurisdiction is:

Ann Shearer
Phone: (202) 402-2172
Email: Ann.B.Shearer@hud.gov.

Please feel free to give Ann a call if you have any questions or concerns. In addition, you can provide the specialist with any information that you believe would be important for HUD's consideration in assessing your state's compliance with the SAFE Act.

HUD's proposed SAFE regulations were published in the Federal Register on December 15, 2009, for a 60-day comment period, a link for which is provided here: <http://www.hud.gov/offices/hsg/ramh/safe/safeprule.pdf>. This proposed rule provides a detailed interpretation of the SAFE Act's minimum standards that jurisdictions would be required to meet when registering and licensing loan originators. The Department specifically requests your comments on the proposed rule in accordance with the instructions provided in the preamble. Until these rulemaking procedures are complete through HUD's issuance of a final rule, these regulations are subject to change and are not provided as a direct measure of your jurisdiction's current efforts at compliance.

Sincerely,

William W. Matchneer III
Associate Deputy Assistant Secretary for
Regulatory Affairs and Manufactured Housing
