District of Columbia B23-0757 / Act A23-0326 Expired	Credit Reporting / Fees / Forbearance / Foreclosure Restrictions / Repossessions / Payment Deferrals	The law makes certain corrections and amendments to the requirements enacted by previous emergency relief bills, which included restrictions on debt collection, wage garnishment, repossession and foreclosure. As with the previous legislation, the restrictions on creditors would be in place during any declared public health emergency and sixty days after its conclusion. Prior legislation also prohibited users of consumer reports from considering adverse information from the covered time period if the consumer report included a COVID-19 alert. Importantly, the law removes this restriction on consumer report users. However, consumer reporting agencies would still be required to include a “COVID-19 alert” and a personal statement in a consumer’s file if the consumer shows evidence of financial hardship because of the COVID-19 emergency.	05/27 – signed by mayor, effective immediately. Retroactive to 03/11. Expires on 08/25.
