THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS

Section 1. The Nevada Revised Statutes are hereby amended by adding thereto a new Chapter, to be designated Chapter 604D: Preventing Predatory Payday and Other Loans Act, to read as follows:

Section 2. Liberal construction. The provisions of this chapter shall be liberally construed to achieve its purposes, which are combatting predatory payday lending and other high-cost loans; ensuring that out-of-state lenders cannot flout Nevada law by making payday loans, other loans, or transactions subject to this chapter at unlawful rates to Nevada residents; and protecting law-abiding lenders from unfair competition by predatory, out-of-state entities.

Section 3. Definitions. As used in this chapter, the words and terms defined in sections 4 to 6, inclusive, of this chapter have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Section 4. Annual percentage rate defined. The term “Annual percentage rate” or APR means an annual rate calculated including all amounts, charges, and payments made directly or indirectly, incident to, ancillary to, or as a condition of a loan or other transaction subject to this chapter, whether voluntary, optional or required, including any amount paid to a broker or credit services organization. The APR shall include, but is not limited to, all interest, fees, charges and other payments as set forth in the regulations issued by the United States Secretary of Defense on July 22, 2015 to implement the Military Lending Act, 10 USC sec. 987, except that credit card fees may be excluded only if the card is network-branded and the fees collectively each year do not exceed 15% of the credit line. The annual percentage rate shall be calculated as specified in such regulations.

Section 5. Loan defined.

1. For purposes of this chapter, “loan” means and includes:

(a) Money or credit provided to a consumer in exchange for the consumer’s agreement to a certain set of terms, including, but not limited to, provisions for direct or indirect repayment, interest, fees, charges or other payments, or other conditions;

(b) Any deferred deposit transaction or payday loan, installment loan, line of credit, retail installment sales contract, and motor vehicle retail installment sales contract, and other closed-end or open-end credit; and

(c) Any sale, assignment, order, or agreement for the payment of unpaid wages, salary, commissions, compensation, or other income, or any portion or amount thereof, whether earned, to be earned, or contingent upon future earnings, that is made in consideration for goods or services, credit, or the payment of money to or for the account of the person earning or receiving, or potentially earning or receiving, the wages, salary, commissions, compensation, or other income.

2. Any transaction that satisfies any definition in this section is a “loan” for purposes of this chapter without regard to the means of collection, without regard to whether the payday lender or other lender has legal recourse against the borrower in the event of non-repayment, and without regard to whether the transaction carries required charges or payments.

Section 6. Network-branded defined. “Network-branded” means branded with and available for use on the Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover networks or a similar widely-accepted card network that is accepted upon presentation for purchases of goods and services at multiple, unaffiliated merchants.

Section 7. Application of chapter. This chapter applies to any payday lender or other person that:

2. Is a bank, savings bank, savings and loan association, or credit union organized, chartered or holding a certificate of authority to do business under the laws of this state, another state, or the United States. However, banks, savings banks, savings and loan associations, and credit unions organized, chartered or holding a certificate of authority to do business under the laws of another state or under the laws of the United States are exempt from this chapter only to the extent this chapter is preempted by federal law;

3. Is an agent of a person subject this chapter or of any affiliate, subsidiary or other entity that is related to, that controls, or that is controlled by a person subject to this chapter;

4. Acquires a whole or partial interest in a loan or transaction subject to this chapter;

5. Is deemed to be subject to this chapter under section 11 of this chapter or is engaged in a transaction that is in substance a disguised loan or other transaction subject to this chapter or is a device, subterfuge or pretense to evade this chapter.

6. Markets, offers, brokers, arranges, facilitates, makes or services any transaction that is otherwise subject to this chapter and that is offered or made to a person residing in this state, whether the transaction is conducted in person, by telephone, via the Internet, or by any other means.

Section 8. Specific transactions subject to this chapter. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, transactions subject to this chapter shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

1. Deferred deposit loans (also known as payday loans), as defined in NRS 604A.050. A deferred deposit loan is subject to this chapter notwithstanding NRS 604A.220 or any other provision of law.

Section 9. Maximum interest rate permitted. For any loan or other transaction subject to this chapter made or renewed on or after the effective date of this chapter, no payday lender or other person shall market, offer, charge, contract for, collect or receive, directly or indirectly, charges or amounts exceeding a 36% annual percentage rate on the unpaid balance of the amount financed. This section shall apply notwithstanding any other provision of the laws of this state, including but not limited to any provision of NRS 604A.0703, NRS 604A.5029, NRS 604A.5052, or NRS 604A.5057 or any other law that refers to or allows an annual percentage rate that exceeds 36%.

- 5. Structuring the transaction in a manner to obscure the fact that it is a loan; or*
- 6. Charging, contracting for or receiving interest, fees, charges or other payments in excess of those permitted, regardless whether the payment purports to be voluntary.*

Section 11. Application of chapter to agents and service providers of exempt entities. If the annual percentage rate of the loan or other transaction exceeds the rate permitted by Section 9 of this chapter, a person shall be subject to the requirements of this chapter notwithstanding the fact that the person purports to act as an agent or service provider or in another capacity for a person that is exempt from this chapter, if, among other things:

DESCRIPTION OF EFFECT

This measure addresses high-interest lending practices by establishing maximum interest rates charged to consumers, and shields more of people’s savings and earnings from garnishment than under current law.

Currently, most consumer loans have no interest rate cap. The proposed cap would set a maximum interest rate of 36% annually on the unpaid balance of the amount financed, and would apply to consumer loans; deferred-deposit transactions (“payday loans”); title loans; and other loan types dependent on future earnings and income.

The initiative also prohibits evading the interest rate cap by structuring transactions to mask their nature as loans covered by this measure, or partnering with out-of-state lenders to violate the rate cap. The initiative voids transactions that violate the cap, and establishes civil penalties.

Additionally, the initiative automatically protects $5,000 of savings in a personal bank account (up from $400 now), and $850 of wages in any workweek (up from $369), as well as a portion of disposable earnings above that amount, from seizure for a debt. Those amounts would be indexed to increase periodically with inflation.
